

Perk up a poster

The oldest posters in the Albery collection are black and white with lots of words. But the newest posters are full of colour, pictures and headlines.

Activity: Perk up a poster

Look at Poster A. As a class decide:

- What is it advertising
- What is the most important bit of information?
- What is not important?

Activity toolkit

Using the important information make a new version of poster A.

Remember; headlines, colour and images!
